

Decentralised procedure [DP]

The decentralised procedure is a process for authorising medicines in more than one European Union member state at the same time.