

Good Clinical Practice [GCP]

Good Clinical Practice (GCP) is an international ethical and scientific quality standard for designing, conducting, recording and reporting clinical trials that involve human participants. The International Conference on Harmonisation (ICH) has issued a guideline with the objective to provide a unified standard to facilitate the mutual acceptance of clinical data by the regulatory authorities in the jurisdictions pertaining to the ICH.